FREE UNION MURDER.

CASE OF THE COLORED PREACHER GIVEN TO THE JURY.

ot Agree, and Court Ad-Lady-Hurt in a Runaway Ac

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA. May 9. pecial.)-The last day of the argument the case of the Rev. William Nelson (colored) for the murder of Thomas W. mpson at Free Union, was an interesting one. Mr. Daniel Harman, recognized as one of the best and most astute members of the Charlottesville Bar, spoke this morning for nearly three hours in defence of the prisoner. Captain Woods sed for the Commonwealth, supple menting his first magnificent effort with a resume of the evidence, and an eloquent plea for justice, which received the closest attention from one of the largest crowds ever seen in the court-room here. At twenty minutes to 4 o'clock, the case was given to the jury, but they could not agree upon a verdict, and court adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Mrs. Lilie M. Dameron died to-day at he residence of her father, H. C. Purvis, his city. She had been ill for a long ime with consumption. She leaves a memory and one cities.

Miss May Durrett and Miss Anna Early, of Earlysville, had a narrow escape from serious, if not fatal, injury this after-noon in a runnway accident. Miss Early received painful injuries.

FREDERICK SBURG.

Farmers Brighter-Find of Infusonal Earth-Fishing.

PREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 9. (Special.)-The farming element were here to-day in force, having gotten through with their corn-planting. One and all eay that they have never seen such an improvement in agricultural prospects. Wheat fields that a month ago looked as if they must be ploughed over for corn, now give evidence of a bountiful yield. Fruit prospects continue good. Fresh fish are still coming in plentifully, despite the fact that the larger shores have all cut out. Old fishermen say they have never known the catch as fine as at

THE TIE TRADE. The tie shipments from this point continue very large. Every week fleets of barges arriving and departing gives our water from a more animated appearance than it has presented for some time. The Fredericksburg Star (daily and semi-weekly) is advertised for sale by its founder and owner R. B. Merchant, Esq. founder and owner, R. B. Merchant, who announces his purpose to retire from journalism. The Star has always done valiant service in Democracy's cause, and it is to be regretted that Mr. Merchant has determined to quit the field. INFUSONAL EARTH.

A large find of infusonal earth of the finest quality near here is causing some excitement in the neighborhood of its location. Samples of the find are being asked for from different manufacturing centres.

The incorporation of the Mining Exchange in Richmond has caused quite an active movement in the gold properties near here. The Richmond company are in correspondence with several owners of in correspondence with several owners of such properties.

The roads leading to Fredericksburg are being closely watched by the law officers here, who have been notified by the Alexandria authorities that the prisoners who escaped from jail there a few nights ago were heading this way.

The late rains have so muddled the water that bass fishing has been suspended for the time. This game fish and silver perch are very plentiful in the Rappahannock, and when the conditions are suitable many persons engage in the sport.

CREWE JOTTINGS.

The Lee Revival Services-Building Improvements-Personal.

CREWE, VA., May 8 .- (Special.)-The vival services being conducted by Evanchadow everything in this vicinity. Up to the present time there have been 118 converts. The singing of Mr. C. H. Coultes is much enjoyed; and, besides the Coultes is much enjoyed; and, besides the solos rendered by him, he leads a choir of about one hundred persons, that occupy the choir platform at each service.

Rev. Mr. Lee, the "big Irishman," as he speaks of himself, is a man of wonderful magnetism, and a forceful talker. His holding his meetings under a large tent induces the attendance of some who do not often attend services in a church.

do not often attend services in a church. On the 25th instant the election for councilmen will take place, and, as the Council has, by the town charter, the right to give or refuse liquor licenses, it is thought that the preaching of Rev.

Mr. Lee will greatly strengthen the cause of the no-license sentiment, as he is quite pronounced in his expressed op-position to the use and sale of intoxi-

The work of building the Disciples' church is progressing, and the structure will soon be under roof.

Several dwellings are in the course of erection, and the painter's brush is making improvements in various parts of the town.

Mrs. J. T. Balsley, who has been visiting-her sister, Mrs. Hiram Bunkholder, has returned to her hope in Philadelphia.

Mr. P. H. Wright and family have left for Petersburg, where they will in the future reside.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

To Supreme-Court-of-Appeals-Judge Harrison.

STAUNTON, VA., May 9 .- (Special.)-Judge George M. Harrison, of the Supreme Court of Appeals, met with a se vere accident at his residence, in this city, this afternoon. Judge Harrison was superintending the laying of carpets, and undertook to push out of the way a heavy upright plano. The plano toppled over, and, falling on Judge Harrison's right leg below the knee, fractured the smaller bone in two places, and also broke the larger bone. Drs. Haller and A. M. Henkel reduced the fractures, and the ## patient is resting comparatively easy to-night. Killed on the Track.

ROANOKE, VA., May 9.—(Special.)— Annie Lawson, a colored woman about 29 years old, was run over and killed by a freight train at Vinton to-night about 5 o'clock. Virginia Wright, a companion, walking with her, warned her of the danger, but she seemed bewildered, and stepped in front of the engine. Her body was fearfully mangled.

THOROUGHLY MODERN Three-Story Brownstone Front

FRANKLIN-STREET RESIDENCE NO. 819, BETWEEN LAUREL AND

SHAFER STREETS, SOUTH SIDE. In execution of the provisions of a certain deed, dated January 29, 1884 and duly recorded, I will offer for sale, on the duly recorded, I will offer for sale, on the premises, on THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1896, at 5:30 o'clock P. M., the above-mentioned RESIDENCE, built about two years age by the present owner, and no expense spared to make it complete in all its appointments. The residence occupies a frontage of 42 feet, the front being entirely of dressed brownstone, much of which is handsomely carved; bay windows, balcony, etc. The interior is finished in hardwood, and the upper floors reached by a massive oak winding stairway. The entire premises are heated by steam from a furnace in the basement, and wired for electric-light, and all fatures for lighting are of the latest and bear patterns, and can be used either for gas or electric-lighting. Wire screens for all doors and windows; electric-bells and speaking-tubes connect all portions of the house. All rooms are furnished with hardwood mantels of the very latest design, and handsomely carved, and freplace fixures to match.

There are eight chambers (besides linear and trunk-rooms), all furnished with closets and stationary stands, etc. Saloon pariors finished in bird-eys maping mirrors, etc. Immediately in rear of the pariors is an octagon dining-room, and adjoining the dining-room is the breakfast-room on one side, and conservatory on the other; pantry, etc., adjoining, in the busement, which is concreted through out, are numerous bins for fuel, besides wine-room, etc.; and on the second floor large lineu-rooms, two baths, etc.

The sanitary arrangement of the property is perfect, and nothing but the most modern fixtures have been used. Closets and washstands on every floor.

The kitchen is fitted up to correspond with the remainder of the house, and there are ample accommodiations for servants. THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1896.

The conservatory is concreted and heated with steam. The entire house with the exception of the servants' apartments, has been frescoed by a first-class with the exception of the servants apartments, has been frescoed by a first-class artist.

The stable—ample accommodations for five horses and six carriages—is separated from the main lot by an alley 20 feet wide, paved with granite-spalls, and is a two-story brick structure, concreted on main floor, and has all necessary arrangements and conveniences.

It can be truly said of this property that it must be seen to be appreciated and it is selden that such a complete residence is offered for sale.

The entire property has a front of sefect on the south line of Franklin street, and it is proposed to offer the same either as a whole or the residence with forty-five feet, which will leave ample room on both sides, and make it entirely detached; and, in that event, the thirty-five feet on the east of the residence will be offered separately.

The premises will be open for inspection from Monday, the Hith instant, to the day of sale, between the hours of H and 2 o'clock, and ample opportunity given for thorough examination.
